

Smorgasbord of Web 2.0 Tools/Resources

March 2, 2011

1. Icyte

www.icyte.com

Web based social and portable bookmarking site able to highlight and add notes to text – excellent for research

2. SAS Curriculum Pathways

www.sascurriculumpathways.com

Interactives, web inquiries, lessons
FACULTY/STAFF USER NAME: start5note
FACULTY/STAFF PASSWORD: flow9grew
STUDENT USER NAME: purpleknights

3. Wordle

www.wordle.net

Create word clouds
Use to analyze speeches, student works, or other text
No login required, will NOT save clouds

4. Prezi

www.prezi.com

According to Wikipedia, Prezi is a web-based presentation application and storytelling tool that uses a single canvas instead of traditional slides.
You do need to have an account.
You can search for other Prezi's that might work for what you need

5. Digital Photo Story

Microsoft Photo Story is a free application that allows users to create a show and tell presentation from their digital photos.
Not web based but free from Microsoft.

6. Discovery Education

www.discoveryeducation.com

School Code: 14AF-375A

More than just videos – lesson plans, resources, puzzles, blackline masters

7. PBS

www.pbs.org/teachers

8. Podomatic

www.podomatic.com

Web based audio recording tool

Similar to Audacity but much simpler to use

9. Dropbox

www.dropbox.com

Web based – think of it as a flash drive in the sky

10. Edmodo

www.edmodo.com

Social networking for the classroom

11. Bubbl

www.bubbl.us

Allows students to brainstorm and web – web based